Dear

Mr. Dulles has requested me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 6 May 1951, by which you desire to withdraw your application for employment with the Central Intelligence Agency.

In view of your decision, and at your request, there are enclosed the various papers submitted for consideration, of whose receipt we shall be glad to be advised.

We appreciate your interest and regret that it could not culminate in a successful result.

Sincerely yours,

Special Assistant to Personnel Director

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The inability to reach you by telephone today is the reason for this note which will serve as a reminder that I trust you soon will have word from your security people regarding clearance of my name. Also, that I shall have the opportunity to talk further with you about an assignment in your planning operation.

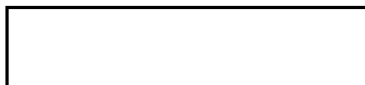

I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Mr. Dulles has forwarded your letter and statement of military service to me.

I regret very much that so much time has passed between the date of your letter and the date of this reply. Due to a number of reasons, this could not be helped.

If you are planning to come to Washington in the near future, I would greatly appreciate your either dropping me a line at the address below, or ringing me on  in order to arrange an interview, if convenient to you.

STAT

In the meanwhile and with my apologies for the length and multitude of detail, I enclose herewith copies of a personal history statement. The submission of such a statement does not, you understand, represent any commitment on your part; it merely permits us to commence such preliminary action as may be necessary. It should be filled out in triplicate, a copy being available for your own files.

Hoping that I shall have the pleasure of meeting you in the near future, I am

Sincerely yours,

(Signed)
